I have always loved every aspect of the game, and to me, it's more of a lifestyle than a pastime. I feel that I contribute to my team with my accurate passing, total vision of the field, goal scoring ability and overall passion for the game. I have enough speed to run down the wing and swing a cross in, as well as the technical abilities to cut in and have my own shot on goal, from both the right and left side of the field.

As soon as I step out on the field, I have total focus and will not be satisfied until I know that I have left everything on the pitch.
