Soccer is my greatest passion. My entire life is surrounded by the game. My strengths on the field include great vision with and without the ball, I am a strong finisher, and I'm a great leader on the field. When I step onto the pitch, I make sure that I play with heart before I use my skill. Just like I give 120% on the field, I do the same in school. I look forward to receiving a scholarship for soccer at a good university that will get me somewhere in the future with soccer.
